COMMUNITY

The Manors at Mattie Rose is an exclusive gated community that spans across 9 acres off Alexander Road in South Charlotte. Eight estate homesites measure around 1-acre each, creating a picturesque retreat just minutes from the excitement of the city.

Expect the best in modern living from custom architecture, designed to suit your every want and need. Each home features stunning craftsmanship and quality workmanship, impressing even the most well-traveled and discerning homeowner. Bryan Mermans, who has studied traditional manor European architecture dating back to the 1400s, is the recommended architect. Chicago-based Soucie Horner facilitates the architectural interior design in their first North Carolina neighborhood. Tammy Coulter, Grandfather Homes' longstanding interior designer, oversees the finishing touches with handpicked material selections.

At Grandfather Homes, we honor that a custom home is the realization of a long-held dream. The Manors at Mattie Rose affords homeowners with the unique position to design estate residences alongside a team of respected designers. We will sit down with you and extract your vision to actualize your dream from concept to reality.
